My Ethics

Skill:

- Analysis (AN)

Time on Task:

- 20–25 minutes

Goal/Purpose:

- As the title of this activity suggests, the goal of this assignment is to reflect on what matters most to you and develop your own personal code of ethics.

Complete the following steps to develop your own code of ethics. This information may be reported to the class according to your instructor’s guidelines, so be sure to provide enough information to facilitate a discussion.

1. Conduct an online search using the phrase code of ethics examples. These can help you identify the type(s) of information generally included in a code of ethics, but it is essential that you develop your own. In the space provided, make notes of any patterns you identify or interesting topics you had not anticipated discovering.

Notes:

2. Next, ask yourself “How do I want to be known?” and place your answer in the space provided.

Answer:

3. Similar to the previous question, ask yourself “What do I stand for?” Again, place your answer in the space provided.

Answer:

4. Using your responses to the previous questions, develop your personal code of ethics, and record it in the space provided. Additionally, provide an explanation for why you have chosen the criteria for your personal Code of Ethics.

Answer:

5. Why is it important to let your customers know you are ethical and run an ethical business? Write a paragraph about the importance of ethics to a business's long-term success.
