

Name:

Date:

Class:

Lesson 6.1

Practice Your Understanding

1. Jose works as an apprentice for an electrical business and accepted a job to add additional electrical circuits in a customer's home. During his initial inspection of the work area, he noticed illegal drugs. The owner realizes Jose has noticed the drug operation and wants to pay additional money for Jose to keep quiet. Produce a one-paragraph summary about how you would respond to this ethical dilemma. Include how you would demonstrate responsible behavior, honesty, and integrity within your summary. (6.1-1)

Answer:

2. Given examples of ethical issues, determine whether the situation is unethical, illegal or both. (6.1-2)
  - a. A qualified applicant is not hired because they have many health issues, and the company is worried the individual will have too many sick days, which would be an added expense for the company.

Answer:

- b. A supervisor proudly displays a calendar with pictures of models in stages of being undressed.

Answer:

- c. An employee does not have access to a copy machine at home, so they make a copy of their IRS 1040 Tax forms at work using the company's paper and copy machine.

Answer:

- d. A supervisor has obtained information on a new product the company will start producing, and she decides to purchase company stock before the stock price goes up.

Answer: