Building Your Business Plan

Activity 6-5: Bibliography

It is time to wrap up the business plan and create the bibliography. A bibliography is an alphabetized listing of all sources you used to develop your business plan. Sources cited in a bibliography might include interviews, books, periodicals, websites, or other information gathered while conducting research to create your business plan.

1. Cite all the sources you used while constructing your marketing plan. Format each source using either the APA or MLA citation style, or according to directions given by your instructor. Be sure to alphabetize your entries.
