

Name:

Class:

Date:

Activity 4.1A: Safety Interview

Instructions

Select someone you know who has a career that requires them to follow specific safety procedures. Arrange a time to interview them about job safety. Complete the worksheet by writing their responses in the space provided for each question.

Interviewee Information

1. Name

Answer:

2. Job Title

Answer:

3. Company

Answer:

4. How long have they been employed in this job?

Answer:

5. How long have they been employed in the same line of work?

Answer:

Interview Questions

1. On a scale from 1 to 10, with 10 being the highest, how important do you think it is to focus on safety?

Answer:

2. What are some of the specific safety rules you are required to follow?

Answer:

3. Which of those safety rules do you feel is most important? Why?

Answer:

4. If you could change any of the safety rules you have to follow, which one would you change and why?

Answer:

5. Are there special requirements about personal protective equipment (PPE) in your current job? If so, what PPE is required?

Answer:

6. Do you receive special rewards or incentives if you and/or other employees are safe on the job?

Answer:

7. What are your thoughts about governmental regulation of safety in your line of work?

Answer:

8. Share an example of a time when an accident was caused by someone not following proper safety procedures.

Answer:

Reflection

1. What new things did you learn about safety from conducting this interview?

Answer: