

Name:

Class:

Date:

Activity 12.4A: By-Products Hunt

Instructions

Look through your household cupboards and utility closets to find three common household products containing animal by-products from each of the parts of an animal. It may be helpful to review the lesson to determine the basic by-products coming from each part of the animal. List your products in the following chart.

1. Which of the products were you surprised to learn contains animal by-products?

Answer:

2. Products containing by-products from variety meats:

Answer:

3. Products containing by-products from hide, hair, fur, and wool:

Answer:

4. Products containing by-products from bone, horn, and hooves:

Answer:

5. Products containing by-products from fats and fatty acids:

Answer: